Immersed in the Waterberg

Set within the wilderness of Kaingo Game Reserve, Mountain Lodge occupies a truly exceptional setting overlooking the Mokolo River valley, framed by expansive water landscapes, rugged cliffs and the surrounding Waterberg.

Created with a deep respect for its natural setting, Mountain Lodge is thoughtfully integrated into the landscape, with natural materials and architecture chosen to complement the surrounding bush. Built using materials sourced from the area and powered by solar energy, this eco-friendly lodge is designed to minimise its impact on nature while offering generous, beautifully appointed spaces that provide every comfort without feeling ostentatious.

Situated within Kaingo's botanical section, Mountain Lodge offers a rare balance between seclusion and discovery. Guests can wander through the surrounding landscape, enjoy the indigenous vegetation and experience the tranquillity of the bush, while the reserve's greater Big 5 area lies just two minutes away.

With sweeping views, considered architecture and a sense of space throughout, Mountain Lodge brings together the freedom of a private residence with an extraordinary African setting.
